

Recently, the students in the Latin American Studies class had a field trip to Chicago. They visited The Field Museum for a fun filled day. One of the highlights was the exhibit of "Inside Ancient Egypt" which houses one of the nation's largest mummy collections and explores ancient life. What a great day!