

Cold temperatures make it inviting to get comfortable with a good book. All Washington School Libraries have a large variety of great new books available for you to check out today! (Pictures courtesy of the Washington High School Library.)

