

This week the high school's 3 Learning Strategies classes have been meeting together to go over classroom expectations. They are learning about self-monitoring, planning and binder expectations along with grade conference sheet expectations.

