

The Washington Middle School will be hosting a talent show on Thursday, May 9 at 6:30. It will be held in the middle school auditorium and admission is free will offering. There will be 15 talented acts performing. Starbolt will open and close the show. The advanced choir will be selling water and cupcakes. This will be a great family event.