

The WMS Transition Reading class stopped by to check out all the wonderful things to do, see, and READ over summer break at our amazing Washington Public Library. So many great opportunities and fun things to do! Don't forget to stop in & sign up for one of the great programs - there's something for everyone!

