

Cody K and Brandon R are competing in the State Physics Olympics on Wednesday, April 17th. Their project is the "Challenge Problem". During the competition, the team will devise at least one technique to measure the unknown mass and carry out necessary experiments. They will have 30 minutes to complete the event. Cody K & Brandon R have it figured out and are ready to take on their competition! Good Luck!