

The high school library is the perfect place to study or do a group project. The seats are comfortable and there is plenty of room! Pictured here are Devan, Rylee & Tara working on a project.