

It is a fantastic time to get comfortable with a good book and READ! All of the Washington Community Schools have super books available to read. It is a great time to visit the library and check out a book! Photo courtesy of the Washington High School Library.