

To celebrate Valentine's Day in the High School Library, students and staff may check out a "blind date", aka a book wrapped up so you don't know the title of it until after you have checked it out! Students/ Staff then read at least 25 pages before making a decision to "ditch the date" or keep reading! Once the book is finished (or ditched), students fill out the "Rate Your Blind Book Date" sheet found inside the book and return the slip to the library. All slips returned by February 28 will be entered into a drawing held on March 1 for a prize! It has been a fun reading program! Pictured here are high school students Caitlin M and Deja W.
