

6th graders in Family and Consumer Sciences have been learning about basic child development skills. At the end of the unit, they visited Mrs. Long's and Mrs. Strabala's 1st grade classrooms. The students got the opportunity to read books together, work on math games, and help Mrs. Strabala's students release their classroom butterflies! It was a great experience for all!