

On Wednesday January 10, WMS Teacher Connie Svenby, Superintendent Jeff Dicks and a group of students involved in the Extended Learning Program brought Google Expedition Virtual Reality Goggles to the residents of the UP Home. Students interacted with the residents showing them how the goggles worked and taking them around the world all from the comfort of the Wellness Center. Students and residents enjoyed the adventure so much that the group plans on returning next month for a whole new set of adventures.

<http://www.kcrg.com/content/news/Seniors-learn-virtual-reality-from-middle-school-kids-helps-cognitive-skills-468694033.html>