

JH music students were recorded playing music and interviewed by KCII's Chance Dorland on Thursday, September 23rd. It is all part of an exchange program where students from all over the world share their music and life experiences with other students via RadiJoJo. RADIJOJO! is the first German non-commercial, non-profit radio station for children.

RADIJOJO! is a radio station for ages 3-13 where children make their own shows. Chance was an intern for RadiJoJo during the 2008-2009 school year while he participated in the Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange For Young Professionals. It's a fellowship program paid for by the U.S. Department of State.
