

The Washington Middle School held a mock election last for President of the United States. Students and Staff voted at the start of the day and ballots were sorted and counted during Mrs. Hoffman-Svenby's current events classes. It was a great experience for everyone!