

On Monday, January 14th, while most students were sleeping in or enjoying their day off, a special group of students on the Snowflake Planning Committee came to Mrs. Meyer's room to help make warm fuzzies for Washington's 6th annual Snowflake event. Snowflake is a prevention program for Washington Middle School students that will be held March 23rd.

