

In May, students from Lincoln Elementary School got the opportunity to attend the Young Writer's Conference. The conference was held at Coe College in Cedar Rapids. Students got to participate in numerous workshops as well as listen to Dori Hillestad Butler. What a fun day!