

Fourth grade students at Lincoln Elementary learned about movement and rhythm in art. They made a layered painting and added shapes to create movement/rhythm through the art they created. The bright colors make every piece of art a MASTERPIECE!

