

2nd grade students in Miss Liz Goodwin's classroom learn math through a new math series: Everyday Math. Students get involved hands on with a fraction matching game that helps teach equivalent fractions. Fractions, matching games, patterns, collecting data and measurement are all part of this new math series. Pictured on top picture are students Avery S and Duston S. Pictured on bottom picture are Clayton S and Leonardo C.

