

Stewart Elementary was honored to have residents and staff from the United Presbyterian Home in Washington volunteer on Friday, September 27th. The afternoon of volunteering was part of the residents' annual Active Aging Week. They enjoyed learning more about Stewart Elementary and the students; which went along with the theme of the week "Discovering Our Community." Students enjoyed spending time with such fun and exciting people. Thank you to the staff and residents of the United Presbyterian Home!