

We all need a break during the day and students at Stewart Elementary take advantage of "break time" with FUN AT RECESS! Not only does recess improve physical fitness with students; but studies show it benefits their social-emotional growth and academic performance. I'll bet when you think back on your school years, a few fond memories of RECESS cross your mind!

