

Mrs. Allen's second grade class, along with a group of Peer Helpers from the high school, taught Stewart Elementary students and staff what it means to be respectful during the monthly character assembly. The assembly included some time to dance and be silly as well. Who knew learning about respect could be so FUN? A big thank- you to the Peer Helpers for being great role models for the younger students!