

What does fairness mean to you? We'd like to extend a big thank you to Miss Goodwin's second grade class for helping us learn what it means to be fair during our most recent character assembly! We love having our second grade classes be role models for our younger students at Stewart Elementary.