

Recently, second grade students at Lincoln Elementary learned different forms of dollar and cent notations. Pictured here are students from Amy Allen's classroom practicing dollar notation with the dollar symbol & decimal point. Students were encouraged to write on the ELMO if they felt comfortable to write the dollar notation of the amount written. They were able to see multiple ways to write dollar & cent amounts.

