

Josh Baynes from the KCRG Weather Academy came to Stewart School on Thursday, October 29 to speak to the 5 second grade classes. Each class had just finished their Weather Unit and Josh's visit was a great ending to all that had been learned. He did some weather experiments and shared safety tips during severe weather!