

Soprano, Lara Troyer, performed the opera of Green Eggs and Ham at the Washington Public Library, March 9th for the Stewart and St. James 3rd grade students. Lara, along with an IMS student Sam (who played Sam I Am) and accompanist Susan See entertained the children. It was a delightful program and worked in well with Read Across America Month, here at Stewart.

