

Stewart Elementary kindergarten-third grade students participated in swim days at the YMCA. Each class was instructed on proper swimming techniques and enjoyed three swimming stations. Students had a lot of fun and it was a great activity to kick off the new school year.