

Stewart School has partnered with All- American Care Center to participate in the ‘Adopt a Grandparent’ program. Stewart third graders will be visiting residents of the care center once a month. In January, students were able to sit down and have a snack and juice while getting to know one another. In future months, activities will include games, performances, and readings. We are so happy to partner and share service learning projects with the community.