

We were excited to have the local band, Starbolt, visit Stewart Elementary on Monday, March 26th. Students and staff celebrated “Reading Rocks” month by singing along to a variety of songs with the band. We also learned about the character pillar of CITIZENSHIP and what it means to be a positive citizen. Thank you to the band for sharing your talents and to all the local citizens who attended!