

Second grade students at Stewart Elementary had their curriculum come to life during their recent Immigration Education Unit. Students took part in a simulation of immigrants coming to Ellis Island. Students loaded a boat with a box of their belongings. They had to go around the island, through customs, visit medical stations, have interviews and faced deportation. We greatly appreciate the many parents that volunteered to make this special day happen. It is definitely a unit the students will remember for a long time.